AMENDED PETITION UNDER 28 U.S.C. § 2254 FOR WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Petitioner, Lee Boyd Malvo ("Mr. Malvo"), through his counsel, William C. Brennan, Jr., Esq., and Brennan McKenna Manzi Shay Levan, Chartered, respectfully requests appropriate relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 Amends his Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus pursuant to Rule 2(b) of the Rules governing 28 U.S.C.

§§ 2254, 2255 to add as an additional Respondent, the Attorney General of the State of Maryland, Douglas F. Gansler, and for reasons therefore, states as follows:

1. On October 10, 2006 Mr. Malvo plead guilty to Counts 1 – 6 (six counts of First Degree Murder) in the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, Maryland in Case No. 102675C. Mr. Malvo was a minor (17 years old) at the time these crimes were committed.

2. On November 8, 2006 Mr. Malvo was sentenced to six (6) terms of life without the possibility of parole, one for each count, all to be served consecutive.

3. Mr. Malvo did not testify at his trial in Case No. 102675C, nor did he appeal the conviction to either Maryland State courts or the federal courts.

4. On June 25, 2013, the Supreme Court of the United State announced their decision in Miller v. Alabama, 132 S. Ct. 2455 (June 25, 2012), which held, in part, mandatory life imprisonment without parole for those under the age of 18 at the time of their crimes violates the Eighth Amendment's prohibition on cruel and unusual punishment. This rule applies retroactively to Mr. Malvo under Teague v. Lane, 489 U.S. 288 (1989). As stated above, Mr. Malvo was under 18 years of age at the time of the commission of the crimes for which he is sentenced to life without the possibility of parole.

5. In addition to Mr. Malvo's sentence in his Montgomery County case, he is facing two (2) terms of life in prison without parole stemming from a case in the Circuit Court for Spotsylvania County, Spotsylvania County, Virginia. This Virginia sentence also stems from crimes committed by Mr. Malvo while he was under the age of 18 which Mr. Malvo's Virginia counsel will be addressing separately from this Petition.

6. Mr. Malvo's judgment of conviction became final over one year ago; however, the "new rule" announced today by the Supreme Court in Miller, supra did not go into effect until June 25, 2012, and should be retroactively applied to Mr. Malvo's case under Teague, supra. This petition is filed within one year of the date on which the rule in Miller initially went into effect as recognized by the Supreme Court.

7. Further, the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") s contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) provides in part that:

- (1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of—
  - a. The date on which the judgment becomes final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
  - b. The date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such state action;
  - c. The date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or

- d. The date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

8. ———That Mr. Malvo is presently in custody serving his sentence at the Red Onion State Prison, located in Pound, Virginia.

9. That since Mr. Malvo is not being held, or present in the State of Maryland, it is proper procedure to add the Attorney General of the State of Maryland as a party to this Petition, and is hereby so amended.

10. That this Honorable Court on August 1, 2013 issued an Order granting Malvo leave to amend his petition to add the Attorney General of Maryland as a defendant/respondent.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner, Lee Boyd Malvo, through his counsel, respectively requests that this Court grant the following relief:

A. Vacate the unconstitutional sentence imposed by the Montgomery County Circuit Court; and

B. For such other and further relief to which the Petitioner is entitled.

Respectfully submitted:

Brennan McKenna Manzi Shay Levan Chartered
